After You Listen

Today, people don't talk about blessings very often. Unless someone sneezes, and then we all say "God bless you." So what exactly is a blessing? When God blesses us, it means that he give us what we need, to do what he has created us to do. 2 Corinthians 9:8 tells us that God can bless us so much that we will always have what we need to do his good works. When Jesus blesses the children in Mark 10:13-16, he is showing everyone that children play a very important part in God's kingdom. With our hearts, our words, and our actions, people of all ages can use God's blessings to serve God and serve others.
