Memory Verse

"For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

Luke 19:10

After You Listen

Even though Zacchaeus and other tax collectors were Jews, they cheated their fellow Jews by charging more taxes than necessary. Then they kept the extra, which made them very rich. Because of this, the people despised tax collectors. However, Jesus, in front of a huge crowd of people, called Zacchaeus by name and told him he was going to stay at his house that day. The people were amazed that Jesus would stay at the house of such a sinner and questioned him. Jesus told them that he came to save all people, including the lost and the worst of sinners. Zacchaeus became a changed man that day! Immediately, he promised to change his ways and pay back all the people he had cheated. Being loved, forgiven, and saved by God changes you!

In Luke 19:10 it says, "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." Jesus didn't just come for those who followed his law almost perfectly, he came for everyone, even the worst of sinners. But, when you come to know Jesus, your life will be different! You will think differently and want to act differently. It will show in your life!
