

MR. WEISENHEIM

A famous scientist has come to Reptarium Middle School to teach, but none of the kids can figure out what's happening in the classroom. How will the gang respectfully talk to a teacher when he is the problem?

Let's Get Started

Episode Theme: Talking to adults respectfully

1. Think about a time when you spoke the right words at the right time. What happened because of those words?
2. In John 13, Jesus' disciples didn't want to wash each other's feet. Feet are smelly, and after a dusty day outside, they need a good cleaning. Washing feet was a servant's job. But Jesus taught the disciples about honoring other people by being a servant. He washed everyone's feet. The story says: "After Jesus had washed his disciples' feet and had put his outer garment back on, he sat down again. Then he said: 'Do you understand what I have done? You call me your teacher and Lord, and you should, because that is who I am. And if your Lord and teacher has washed your feet, you should do the same for each other. I have set the example, and you should do for each other exactly what I have done for you'"(John 13:12-16). Your place in God's story is to hear Jesus' call to serve. Don't just say that you are a Christian. You can show that you are a Christian by using respectful words and by treating others as more important than you. As you listen to this episode, think about how the world would be very different if everyone did that!

Memory Verse

"The right word at the right time is like precious gold set in silver."

Proverbs 25:11 CEV

After You Listen

In this episode, the gang had to find a way to respectfully tell an adult about the problems that he was causing for them. Think about the different people in your life. Each of these people is created in the image of God. "The image of God" is not about what someone looks like. Each person can show you a little bit of what God is like. And you get to know God better with every person you meet. So what do you do with that information? You can start with respect. Everyone has a special quality or ability given by God. That means every person has value. That includes you too! Don't think that you are better than other people. When you talk to other people, you should fill your talk with humility, care, trust and respect.

Dig deeper and read these scripture verses about how to treat other people: John 13:34; Romans 12:10; Hebrews 12:14.

Challenge

Everyone needs to learn how to talk to other people. Good habits and manners, such as how to make a proper introduction and how to speak clearly, will make you feel confident and make the other person comfortable. Remember to show that you believe that everyone is created in God's image and should be respected.

Practice with your family or friends how to say “Hello” with eye contact, a smile and possibly a handshake. Act out conversations by asking polite questions and by telling short stories.

Take the Episode Quiz

Question 1: At the start of the story, what food does Liz take from Spike?

Answer: He eats Spike’s pretzel nuggets.

Question 2: Who is reading “Qualitative Analytical Chemistry: A Comprehensible Introduction”?

Answer: Chamy.

Question 3: According to Mr. Weisenheim, what is the most important thing in science?

Answer: Curiosity.

Question 4: What mark did Chamy receive on the pop quiz?

Answer: C-

Question 5: Which adult helped the kids talk to Mr. Weisenheim?

Answer: Miss Wattle
