2. In Genesis 12:1-2, God asked a lot of Abram—to leave his family and country, but he also promised Abram more than he could imagine. I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. After You Listen

In this episode, Liz talks about how we as Christians can change the world and can also change the world of one person. As Lucille points out, we are able to do this because God can do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine. Our job is to serve others by being God's hands and feet. Sometimes we ask things like, “Why doesn't God do anything here?” Instead, we should be asking, “What can I do to help out here?” When we serve, we will be surprised by the ways that God blesses that work!

Challenge

Choose a family member, friend or neighbor to do something special for this week. Write down the person's name and your idea for serving them. Your act of service doesn't have to be big. Commit to also pray for the person you chose to serve. At the end of the week, think about how your service and prayer affected your life and the person you served.
